Burrell Resources Engages Huitt Tracey as Investor Relations Representative

Vancouver, British Columbia – October 20, 2026 – Burrell Resources Inc. ("Burrell" or the "Company") (CSE: BURY) is pleased to announce that it has engaged Huitt Tracey as the Company's Investor Relations Representative, subject to the acceptance of the Canadian Securities Exchange (the "CSE").

Mr. Tracey brings 40 years of experience in the resource, technology and biotechnology capital markets in various roles including Licensed Investment Advisor, Officer, Director, and Investor Relations professional. He is based in Vancouver, British Columbia.

"We are very pleased to welcome Huitt to Burrell," said Patrick McGrath, CEO of Burrell. "With the addition of the Rainmaker copper project to our Nevada portfolio and our first exploration program now being planned, this is an important time to broaden our reach in the investment community. Huitt's experience will help us tell the Burrell story to a wider audience of shareholders and investors."

Terms of the Engagement

Mr. Tracey has been engaged under an investor relations consulting agreement (the "Agreement") for a monthly fee of $2,500, beginning in October 2026. The monthly fee will increase to $7,500 following upon the closing of a financing that funds the Company's initial drill program. Mr. Tracey will be granted 300,000 incentive stock options under the Company's stock option plan at the Company's next company-wide grant. Each option will be exercisable to acquire one common share at an exercise price to be set at the time of grant, will vest in equal thirds on each of the first three anniversaries of the grant date, and will have a five-year term. The engagement can be terminated by either party with 30 days written notice.

Mr. Tracey is at arm's length to the Company and, as of the date of this news release, holds 140,000 common shares of the Company. The engagement, including the grant of stock options, remains subject to the acceptance of the CSE.
